FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Local Veteran Receives Healing Service Dog

Louisville, KY, July 6, 2017 – A Lexington woman is receiving a service dog courtesy of Park Community Credit Union and Dogs Helping Heroes.

Veteran, Bailey, has been working with Dog Helping Heroes with the hope of getting a service dog to help heal from her war related injuries. On July 11, 2017 Bailey and her dog Whiskey will complete their training to become a certified team.

Park Community Credit Union is providing the funding for Bailey to receive her service dog. Dogs Helping Heroes will find the perfect canine to pair with the veterans and train both the veteran and the canine to work with each other.

Providing this service dog is part of Park Community Credit Union's charitable giving program. More information on Park Community Credit Union's Giving campaign and Dogs Helping Heroes can be on their website <https://www.parkcommunity.com/> and <http://www.dogshelpingheroes.org/>.
