FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Park Community Credit Union Announces New Relationship with Holy Cross High School

Louisville, KY, - Park Community Credit Union announced this week a new relationship with Holy Cross High School. The announcement positions Park Community as Holy Cross's official credit union.

The sponsorship will include outreach to Holy Cross students, parents, faculty and alumni as well as a Holy Cross High School ATM debit card and sponsored events throughout the year.

Over the last few years, Park has focused on partnering with established local institutions that share a similar passion for reinvesting in the Louisville community. This week's announcement with Holy Cross is a significant addition to that effort as it continues to expand its presence in the Louisville area.

"Holy Cross High School has always been a symbol of pride in Louisville. Many of our employee's children have attended school there. It's a local institution we're proud to support," said Sandy Gogan, Senior Vice President of Retail Services for Park Community Credit Union

"We want partners that keep their money local and give back. Everyone knows Park is one of the best local institutions to do this. They've always been a big supporter of us so we're really looking forward to a new relationship with them," said Danielle Wiegandt, President of Holy Cross High School.
