FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

PCCU's Kate McKune Recognized as Louisville Leader

Louisville, KY, - Park Community Credit Union is pleased to announce that General Counsel Kate McKune has been included in the Leadership Louisville Class of 2019 and Louisville Business First's 20 People to Know.

Both recognitions underscore McKune's commitment and passion for the credit union movement through her experience with Park Community Credit Union and her prior 12 years in litigation for financial institutions.

Louisville Business First's 20 People to Know introduces a select group of achievers to the local business community. Already a success in her field, the program will better connect Kate with other leaders for the benefit of the Louisville business community.

The Leadership Louisville program selects established community leaders for a ten month active learning experience to help them better innovate and influence change. Kate is a member of the 40th anniversary class, following thousands of other civic leaders committed to promoting positive change in Louisville.
