PCCU Risk Managers Earn NAFCU Designation

Louisville, KY, - Park Community Credit Union is pleased to announce that their risk managers Drew McGarvey and Don Browning have earned the prestigious designation of Certified Risk Manager (NCRM) by the National Association of Federally-Insured Credit Unions (NAFCU).

The new credentials were earned by attending the annual NAFCU Risk Management Seminar and passing the associated exam covering Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) methodology and NCUA regulatory risk requirements.

“The difficulties of the ever evolving risk and regulatory landscapes make these conferences and certifications very important. We want to be certain our members are safe and Park Community Credit Union makes sure we have the training to protect them the best way possible.” Drew and Don said in a joint statement.

Credit union certifications like these continue to be a focus for Park Community Credit Union as they prepare their staff to thwart the constant onslaught of threats to their membership.
