

Anti-Discrimination Policy

The Credit Union is an equal employment opportunity employer. It is the policy of the Credit Union to promote equal opportunity in the areas of recruitment, employment, training, development, transfer, promotion, compensation, and benefits. Employment decisions at the Credit Union are based on merit, qualifications, and abilities and are without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin or ancestry, citizenship, age, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, veteran's status, parental status, marital status, genetic disposition, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law.

As an equal opportunity employer, the Credit Union policy is to maintain a work environment free of discrimination or harassment of any form. Employees with questions or concerns about any type of harassment or discrimination are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor or the AVP or SVP of Human Resources. Employees can raise concerns without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to have engaged or be engaging in any type of unlawful harassment or discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

EEO Complaint Process

In order for the credit union to uphold its policy of non-discrimination, it is important that any event where one may feel the application, interview or selection process was discriminatory, be reported for further evaluation. A report can be made by calling Human Resource Management at (502) 815-6025 or (502) 815-6021. Or, a report may be made in writing to:
