FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Park Community Credit Union Organizes 1st Annual Richmond Battle of the Banks Food Drive

Richmond, KY (May 15, 2018) – In the month of June, Park Community Credit Union along with 6 other local banks will engage in a little friendly competition. The financial institutions will be competing to see who can collect the greatest amount of food for God's Outreach Madison County Food Bank. The institution who collects the greatest number in pounds not only gets the satisfaction of supporting a worthy cause, but they will receive a plaque. Each year the plaque will transfer to the new winner.

God's Outreach is a non-profit organization committed to the challenge of feeding the hungry in Madison County, KY. They not only offer supplemental & emergency food to over 1600 families they offer a Commodity Supplemental Food Program to help seniors have a more nutritional diet. In addition, they serve 20 schools with approximately 2200 backpacks of weekend food and several Children's summer feeding programs.

God's Outreach is located at 1512 East Main St. Richmond, KY 40475. Food distribution hours are Monday-Wednesday 9:00am-12:00pm.

In the month of June, you can make your food donation at any of the following participating Richmond locations of Park Community Credit Union, Chase Bank, Community Trust Bank, PNC Bank, 5th/3rd Bank, Citizens Guaranty Bank, 1st Trust Bank, US Bank, Forcht Bank, Peoples Bank and the Waco location of Peoples Bank.

Park Community has donated over $288,000 for the benefit of multiple charities over the last four years. In March, Park Community has provided a Dodge Caravan, to Refuge for Women in Lexington and in April, a truck to the Madison County Habitat for Humanity. In addition, Park Community offers three co-branded debit cards which benefit Kosair Charities, the Kentucky Humane Society, and the Lexington Humane Society.
